Sir,

Referring to the correspondence ending with Government order No. 2008-30/Revy. 130-15-16 dated 9th June 1916, I have the honor to inform you that the Manager of the Sri Vyasaraya Swami Mutt writes to say that the men of the Bare Guard detailed for duty with the Mutt pray that they may be relieved from the Mutt duty on account of their ill-health owing to their prolonged tour with His Holiness the Swamigalu.

I request you to kindly arrange to get two Licenses from the Residency one for the men of the guard to be detailed from the First Battalion L.I. at Bangalore to relieve the men at the Mutt, and the other for the men returning to Mysore with arms. The description of the arms of the men going as also of the men returning are noted in the margin. His Holiness the Swamigalu is now on tour at Musiri on the north bank of the Kaveri right opposite to Mulittali Rail-way station S.I. Railway.
